

PERSONAL PROFILE

- The personal profile is an extremely important part of the assessment process.
- Your writing will not be marked, but it may be used to assess your suitability and readiness for your program.
- This is your opportunity to tell us why you want to be in this program, and why you are likely to be a successful student.
- Do the best writing that you can - paragraph, essay or point form.

Instructions:

- Write your name at the top of your profile.
- Only write on one side of the paper (you can use multiple sheets of paper)
- You have approximately 30 minutes to complete the personal profile

What makes you a good candidate for this program?

Topics to address in your profile may include:

- Why are you interested in this program?
- How does it fit with your career goals?
- This is a demanding program with a heavy workload and a lot of homework. How will you adjust your schedule to allow yourself the time required to be successful in your studies?
- If you have been employed in this or a related field please give a brief description of this experience.
- If you have any high-school training in this field give a brief description of the work you did and what you learned.
- If you have any informal training, such as working with family or friends in this field, give a brief description of what related projects you were involved in and what you learned from them.
- Please comment on anything else you feel would demonstrate your interest and suitability for the program.